

■ Breaking Barriers: Indian Navy's All Women Crew Creates History

Indian Navy's women officers have created history after they completed the first-ever all-women independent maritime reconnaissance and surveillance mission in the North Arabian Sea onboard a Dornier 228 aircraft. The mission was carried out by five officers of the Indian Navy Air Squadron (INAS) 314 based at Naval Air Enclave at Gujarat's Porbandar. The INAS 314 is a frontline Naval Air Squadron based at Porbandar, Gujarat. This "first-of-its-kind military flying mission" is expected to pave the way for women officers in the aviation cadre to assume greater responsibility and aspire for more challenging roles.
