Indian Women's Team to Play 65 Internationals in ICC FTP for 2022-25

The Indian women's team will play as many as 65 international games in the inaugural Future Tours & Programmes (FTP) set by the International Cricket Council (ICC) during the three-year-cycle between 2022 and 2025. The ICC has announced the structured calendar that includes a total of 301 matches (7 Tests, 135 ODIs and 159 T20Is) over a period of three years. India's share of matches will be two Tests against England and Australia along with 27 ODIs and 36 T20 Internationals during the said duration. Since the start of FTP from May, 2022, India have already played 3 WODIs and 3 WT20Is. India will host New Zealand, South Africa, West Indies and Ireland at home, and will visit Australia during the winter of 2025-26.
