■ Azadi Quest – Online Educational Mobile

The Ministry for Information and Broadcasting (I&B) has launched 'Azadi Quest' - a series of online mobile games based on the theme of heroes and milestones of Indian freedom. The game, launched by I&B Minister Shri Anurag Thakur on 24th August, is designed for players of all ages for interactive learning with fun gameplay. The games are now available in India and will be launched worldwide next month. Zynga India developed the mobile application for the game with contents curated by the Publications Division and the Indian Council of Historical Research (ICHR).
