■ PT Usha Becomes First Woman President of Indian Olympic Association

Former athlete PT Usha has been elected unopposed as the President of the Indian Olympic Association, IOA. Usha is the first woman to occupy the top job at IOA in its 95-year history and she is the first international medalist to take over the top post. The 58-year-old Usha, a multiple Asian Games gold medallist and a fourth-place finisher at the 1984 Olympics 400m hurdles final, filed her nomination papers for the top job along with 14 others from her team for the various posts.
