

attention of substantial crowds.

■ CCRAS Launches AGNI Initiative to Elevate Quality of Ayurvedic Practices

The Central Council for Research in Ayurveda Sciences (CCRAS) under the Ministry of Ayush has unveiled the Ayurveda Gyan Naipunya Initiative (AGNI) - a structured platform for Ayurveda practitioners to share their innovative practices, contributing to a collective body of knowledge. The initiative serves the dual purpose of not only fostering the reporting of innovative practices but also conducting research to validate these practices scientifically and through evidence-based appraisal. Through AGNI, the Ministry of Ayush and CCRAS aim to strengthen the scientific foundation of Ayurveda, making it more accessible and relevant in contemporary healthcare practices.

■ Karmayogi Prarambh Celebrates One-Year Milestone