

NATIONAL

■ Assembly Elections in Five States to be Held in November 2023

The Election Commission of India (ECI) has announced the assembly election schedule for Chhattisgarh, Madhya Pradesh, Rajasthan, Telangana, and Mizoram. The polling will be held in November, with votes counted on December 3. These five states have a combined total of 679 assembly seats and 16 crore electors, including approximately 60 lakh first-time voters.

