

NATIONAL

■ Parliament Passes Landmark Women's Reservation Bills

In a landmark decision, both the houses of Parliament approved the Constitution (128th Amendment) Bill 2023. Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi announced that the legislation, once enacted will be called as the

'Nari Shakti Vandan Adhiniyam.' This legislation aims to reserve one-third of the seats in the Lok Sabha, State Legislative Assemblies, and the Delhi Assembly for women. Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi emphasised that this legislation will instill a newfound confidence among the people of our nation and reflects the collective commitment of all political parties to empower women.