

India Wins One Gold, 3 Silver, 3 Bronze at U-17 Asian Wrestling Championships

India concluded their successful campaign at the U-17 Asian Wrestling Championships in Bishkek, Kyrgyzstan, with an impressive tally of one gold, three silver, and three bronze medals. Ankush clinched India's sole gold medal in the freestyle 55kg weight category by defeating Iran's Amirreza Ali Teymorzad. Dhanraj Bharat Shirke secured a silver medal, falling to Iran's Ahora Farhad Khateri. Rupesh added another silver to India's medal haul after being defeated by Iran's Sam Reza Sayar in the freestyle 48kg final. India's freestyle team finished second in the rankings, with all 10 wrestlers earning medals in the competition, cementing their prowess on the wrestling mat.
