

International Jumping Meet: Murali Sreeshankar Secures Gold; Jeswin Aldrin Takes Silver

Indian long jumper Murali Sreeshankar clinched the gold medal, while compatriot Jeswin Aldrin settled for the silver at the prestigious International Jumping Meeting held in Kallithea, Greece. In an impressive display of athleticism, Sreeshankar successfully defended his title in the Men's long jump event, recording a season-best jump of 8.18 meters. Aldrin, the national record holder, secured the second spot with a commendable effort of 7.85 meters at this World Athletics Continental Tour bronze level competition.
