

■ India Launches Operation Karuna to Deliver Relief Aid to Cyclone-hit Myanmar

India launched Operation Karuna in response to the devastation caused by Cyclone Mocha in Myanmar. Three naval ships delivered relief material and aid to the affected areas, including food, water, medicines, and tents. The operation was carried out in coordination with the Myanmar government, and the Indian Navy worked closely with local authorities to ensure that the relief reached those in need. Prime Minister Narendra Modi praised the efforts of the Indian Navy and expressed solidarity with the people of Myanmar. Operation Karuna demonstrates India's commitment to helping its neighbors in times of crisis.
