

area.

■ Tripartite Agreement Paves Way for Lasting Peace in Assam's Troubled Regions

On the path towards achieving lasting peace and stability in the North-Eastern region of India, a momentous agreement has been reached between the Centre, the Assam government and representatives of the Dimasas National Liberation Army/Dimasas Peoples' Supreme Council (DNLA/DPSC). Home Minister Shri Amit Shah said that as per the agreement the Dimasas Welfare Council will be established which will be overseen by the Government of Assam. This council will serve to safeguard and promote the social, cultural and linguistic identity of the Dimasas people, while also addressing their political, economic and educational aspirations. Meanwhile, the DNLA/DPSC will be completely disbanded, bringing an end to the long-standing insurgency by the group.