

■ NSDC Signs MoU with Swiss Institute for Enhancing Skill Development in Hospitality

In a bid to enhance the skill development initiatives in the hospitality sector and make apprenticeship aspirational, the National Skill Development Corporation (NSDC) has signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with Switzerland-based Hotel and Tourism Management Institute (HTMI). The collaboration will offer certificate, diploma, advanced diploma, and certification courses in hospitality trades to aspiring students. Under the partnership, students will receive training in three modules over the course of six months. The program will cover topics such as English for hospitality operations, front office operations and administration, housekeeping operations, food and beverage production and services, and guest services, among others.
