In a stunning show of talent and determination, India's U-19 women's cricket team claimed their first-ever ICC title by defeating England in the final of the U-19 T-20 World Cup. India's dominant performance included a seven-wicket victory, with the team successfully chasing a target of 68 in just 14 overs. India's bowling attack, led by pacer Titas Sadhu and leg-spinner Parshavi Chopra, set the tone for the victory with a clinical display that blew away England's batting line-up. The win not only cements India's dominance at the U-19 level but also marks a proud moment for the country as the women's team lift their first-ever World Cup in the sport.
