

and Rattle Hydro Electric Projects for the last five years, despite India's...

India, Egypt Vow to Expand Ties with USD 12 B Trade Target, Defence Cooperation

India and Egypt have agreed to expand ties in areas of defence and security, trade and counter-terror cooperation. Prime Minister Narendra Modi and visiting Egyptian President Abdel Fattah El-Sisi held wide-ranging talks on 25th January 2023. The two sides were unanimous in their view that terrorism is the most serious security threat to humanity and that they agreed that concrete measures are needed to end the scourge. The two sides inked five agreements providing for cooperation in areas of culture, IT, cyber security, youth matters and broadcasting. The two sides have decided to take the bilateral trade to USD 12 billion in next five years.

