

Contents

Editorial	299
Articles
Using Social Cognitive Theory to Explain Media Narratives of Propaganda: A Comparative Analysis of Nazi Germany and the 2022 Russia–Ukraine Conflict Arjun Chatterjee	302
The Super Bowl as a Platform for Political Advertising: An Experimental Investigation of Third-person Perception Among Partisan Viewers Kenneth E. Kim	323
Pandemic Social Media Use, Loneliness and Social Skills Among Emerging Adults Chrysalis L. Wright and Jeyliz M. Collazo Rivera	341
From Nostalgia to Legacy: Framing Zong Qinghou's Passing on WeChat by State-owned, Specialised and Private Media Xinyue Zhang and Changsong Wang	362
The Media Landscape of Arunachal Pradesh: Exploring Indigenous Communities' Newspaper Readership and Media Habits Champa Devi	385
Adaptation and Validation of the Online Gaming Motivations Scale Gulshat Muhametjanova, Gulgun Afacan Adanir and Ibrahim Arpacı	404
Is The US Supreme Court Ready to Rule on AI and Free Speech? Take It Down and Its Free Speech Implications Mark Goodman	423