

Know About the Lakes of India

Soumika Das

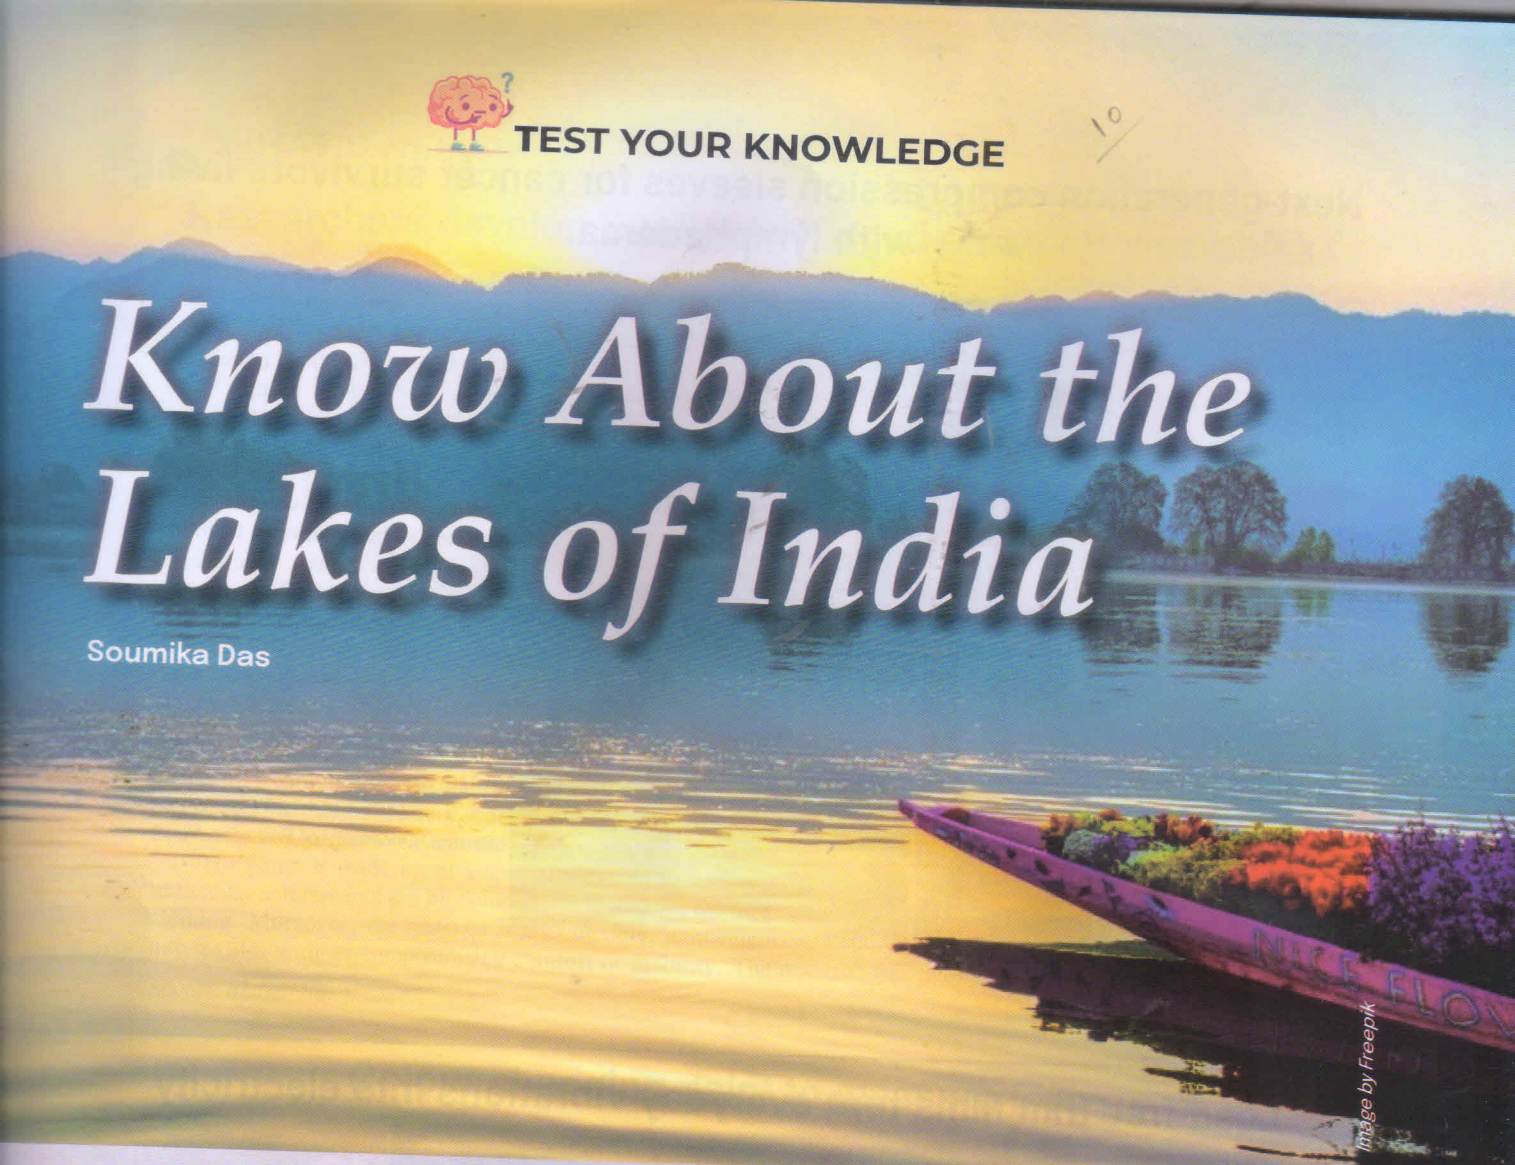

Image by Freepik

1. The fine-grained bed of an ephemeral lake in a desert is known as:
 - a) Drumlin
 - b) Playa
 - c) Natural levee
 - d) Oasis
2. The surface layer of the bottom of the lake with abundance of sediment is called _____.
 - a) Photic zone
 - b) Littoral zone
 - c) Limnetic zone
 - d) Benthic zone
3. Which of the lakes is formed by the displacement of land due to geological forces
 - a) Wular
 - b) Chilika
 - c) Parashar
 - d) Loktak
4. Which is the oldest lake in India?
 - a) Kolleru
 - b) Sudarshan
 - c) Bhimtal
 - d) Sambhar
5. Which is the only floating lake of India?
 - a) Dal
 - b) Wular
 - c) Gadsar
 - d) Loktak
6. A temporary or short-lived lake formed due to the occurrence of rainfall is called:
 - a) Tectonic lake
 - b) Ephemeral lake
 - c) Oxbow lake
 - d) Oligotrophic lake