

ROLL NO.

WEST BENGAL NURSING COUNCIL

SECOND YEAR GENERAL NURSING & MIDWIFERY (3 YRS) FINAL EXAMINATION,

DECEMBER - 2023

SUBJECT : MEDICAL-SURGICAL NURSING-II (PAPER-II)

(OBJECTIVE)

FULL MARKS – 20

TIME ALLOWED : 20 MINUTES

(ANSWER ON THIS SHEET ONLY)

6. Place a (✓) tick mark against the most suitable answer : 1×5=5
- (i) Causative vector of Dengue is —
(a) Culex mosquito (b) Female Anopheles
(c) Aedes aegypti (d) Sand Fly
 - (ii) Treatment of cataract is —
(a) Surgery (b) Medical (c) Antibodies (d) None of the above
 - (iii) Scabies is caused by —
(a) Lice (b) Itch Mite (c) Candida (d) Tinea
 - (iv) Bitot spots is seen in deficiency of —
(a) Vitamin A (b) Vitamin C (c) Vitamin B (d) Vitamin D
 - (v) Most common fracture of the bones —
(a) Radius Fracture (b) Pelvic Fracture
(c) Clavicle Fracture (d) Spine Fracture
7. Fill in the blanks : 1×5=5
- (a) Cancer that arises from glandular tissue is termed as _____
 - (b) Inability to control emptying the bladder is _____
 - (c) Treatment of malignant tumour by using ionizing radiation is called _____
 - (d) Inflammation of the margin of the eye lid is called _____
 - (e) After needle stick injury, PEP should be started within _____ hours.

8. Write 'True' or 'False' against the following statements :

1×10=10

(a) Radiation therapies given from distant source is called Brachytherapy.

(b) Leprosy affects peripheral nerves.

(c) Common rules of fluid replacement in burns is rules of 7

(d) Herpes zoster is caused by bacteria.

(e) Hepatitis B is water borne disease.

(f) Stiffness of small joints at morning is sign of rheumatoid arthritis.

(g) Inflammation of the middle ear is called otitis externa.

(h) Osteoporosis means calcification of bone.

(i) The best time for administering diuretics is at bed time.

(j) Specific drug for the treatment of Atrial Fibrillation is Digitalis.